

Based on the stable development of the office properties (which make up 76 per cent of the total portfolio), current refinancing arrangements for properties, and the consolidated profit of EUR 66.5 million for the 2019 financial year, the Management Board and Supervisory Board decided at today's Supervisory Board meeting to propose a dividend of EUR 0.03 per share to the Annual General Meeting for the 2019 financial year.