

Warimpex Supervisory Board member Tomasz Mazurczak steps down

Vienna, 20 August 2015 – Warimpex Finanz und Beteiligungs AG announces that Tomasz Mazurczak has stepped down as member of the Supervisory Board of Warimpex. Mazurczak joined the company in 2013. He made the decision to resign because of his new position in an investment fund and the potential for conflicts of interest.

The vacant position on the Supervisory Board will be filled at the ordinary annual general meeting.
