Florian Petrowsky – new member of the Warimpex Management Board

Vienna/Warsaw, 2 May 2014 – Florian Petrowsky (47) was appointed to the Management Board of Warimpex Finanz- und Beteiligungs AG as of 1 May 2014. He assumes the functions of organisation and law and is also responsible for the new area of transaction management. The Warimpex Management Board has now been restored to four members and is made up of Franz Jurkowitsch (Chairman of the Management Board), Georg Folian (Deputy Chairman of the Management Board), Alexander Jurkowitsch and Florian Petrowsky.

Florian Petrowsky has primarily held management positions in the real estate sector since 1996, with around eight years at Raiffeisen-Leasing GmbH. His most recent roles at that company were as authorised representative and Head of Real Estate & Infrastructure. He then spent two years as the Managing Director of an independent real estate leasing company before moving to Warimpex in 2008, where he is now responsible for the area of law and transaction management.

“I wish Florian Petrowsky every success in his new role. Having him and particularly his extensive expertise in the area of transactions on board means that the Management Board is now structurally sound and strongly positioned to continue leading Warimpex successfully,” said Günter Korp, Chairman of the Warimpex Supervisory Board.
